

Signal Flags

PPG Cup Championship points are awarded to the top 12 finishers, with one bonus point given to both the fastest qualifier and the driver who leads the most laps in the race.

Points

1st place	20	10th place	10	9th place	9
2nd	18	8th	8	10th	8
3rd	16	7th	7	11th	6
4th	14	6th	6	12th	5

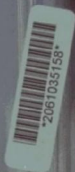

Drivers

1

AL UNSER JR. The defending champion enters his 14th Indy Car season with 27 career Indy Car wins. Last year, he won a record-tying eight races, capturing both his second Indy 500 and his second PPG Cup Championship. He has finished among the top three drivers in point standings seven times.

2

EMERSON FITTIPALDI In 1994, the two-time Indy 500 winner helped Marlboro Team Penske finish 1-2 in the PPG Cup point standings. He has 21 career Indy Car victories and won the PPG Cup in 1989 after a Formula One career that included two World Driving Championships.

Marlboro Team Penske Race Guide